IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

You have options after age 65.

We help you understand your choices.

We work with Medicare-eligible individuals to help them understand the process of choosing a Medicare plan that meets their individual medical and financial needs.

Brown & Brown offers employees and their families assistance with Medicare decisions. Even if you have health insurance, it is important to be informed about all your insurance options. When it comes to Medicare, making uninformed decisions can lead to costly financial penalties.

Our team has helped thousands of individuals confidently navigate Medicare plan choices through personalized, one-on-one consultations.

Our Eligibility Specialist contacts Medicare-eligible employees four months before their 65th birthday and those already over 65. The call is brief and focuses on Medicare basics, questions you may have, and general guidance. You can also contact us directly if you prefer. Our team is straightforward and designed to give employees and their families peace of mind when making Medicare decisions.

We make Medicare easier to understand by explaining the basics and reviewing the plan options available in your area. Any employee or family member can take advantage of a no-obligation consultation to explore their Medicare choices. These services are completely voluntary and offered at no cost.

As part of the process, we compare plans in your region to determine which options best align with your doctors, prescriptions, and pharmacies assuring flexibility and support. If you choose to move forward with Medicare, our team is here to guide you through enrollment and help you select a plan that fits your medical and financial needs, making the experience as smooth as possible.
